Luggage handling will be provided from Oslo to Bergen on the day of the “Norway in a Nutshell” experience. Please note that one piece of luggage per person is included.

It is not common practice to tip on Hurtigruten ships on the coastal voyage; however, if you feel that crew members should be rewarded for providing exceptional service, tip boxes are placed in the restaurant together with envelopes.

Meals on the coastal voyage are primarily locally sourced providing guests with both a high quality, fresh and limited menu.

Hurtigruten’s ships are working vessels operating a regular service to a set timetable. The ships carry goods, vehicles and passengers between ports, by night and day, as an integral part of Norwegian daily life. The ships are calling at ports around the clock.

Cabin choices are Inside, Outside and Superior Outside. Both Outside and Superior Outside can have obstructed views. Cabins are assigned by Hurtigruten; stateroom numbers will be supplied upon arrival at the ship in Bergen, Norway. Please note that there is a finite number of each cabin category available. Specific categories are available on a first come first served basis. Every effort will be made to accommodate your cabin choice at time of booking; however, if that cabin category is no longer available, the closest available category will be offered. Please inquire through our Client Care Center for any upgrade fees which will apply for different cabin categories.

Please be advised many airlines do not provide advance seat assignments until check-in at the airport. Advance seating will be subject to the airline’s terms and conditions.

Travel on Day 4 is a combination of rail, bus and ferry. Train departs Oslo at 8:00 a.m. and arrives in Bergen at approximately 8:30 p.m. It is recommended that you purchase snacks and drinks the day prior. A café on the train is available during your trip from Oslo to Myrdal and also during your stop in Flåm. On this day, luggage will be taken separately from Oslo and delivered directly to the hotel in Bergen.
